Open Night 2012 was held last Tuesday 14th August with a theme of ‘Writing’. Students and staff dressed up as a book character for the Bookweek Parade which further enhanced the writing theme. Each class had a sheet of paper with a sentence starter and a ‘Writing Stimulus’ linked to the beach. Parents and caregivers along with their children visited each area of the school to complete the writing task and collect a stamp for their ‘passport’. All 16 of the school’s Interactive Whiteboards were on to provide extra ideas and help with the writing task.
